

International PEAK Week ! May 29 - June 1, 2007

PEAK Teacher E-News
May 2007

Join PEAK classrooms in California, Illinois, and Sweden by participating in International PEAK Week 2007!

This annual event sparks cooperation amongst all PEAK students as classrooms take part in simultaneous activities in a global effort toward sustainable energy management. Each day of the week, teachers and students are provided with a fun 30-minute lesson and activity. Participation in International PEAK Week encourages students to continue their efforts to save energy as well as provides classrooms a chance to review energy-related concepts that have been learned throughout the school year.

How to Participate:

- Download the International PEAK Week 2007 Packet.
- Follow the simple, 30-minute lesson plans provided for each day of the week.
- Send in your classroom's PEAK Pledge.
- Visit www.peakstudents.net for access to all electronic forms and lesson plans.
